

Restorative Practice “Breakfast” Presentation

Marg Thorsborne

Why we don't punish kids anymore!

- Have you heard about Restorative Practice and wondered what it was about?
- Have you asked yourself “How come kids don't get punished at schools these days?”
- Have you wondered about your parenting style or how you can contribute to a peaceful and calm community?

If you answered “Yes” to any of the above then this is for you!

Marg Thorsborne, well known Australian author, educator, counsellor and consultant will be speaking about the principles of Restorative Practice at a "breakfast" (muffin and hot drink) presentation on Friday 29 November from 7:30-8:30am at ChCh South Intermediate.

Marg works in schools and in public and private sector work places, convening conferences for high level conflict and inappropriate behaviour as well as training middle and senior managers in conference facilitation.

A highly engaging speaker, Marg is passionate about promoting ways to build and rebuild relationships between teachers, students and other members of a school community to enhance teaching and learning outcomes. She has worked with many schools within our cluster.

Tea, coffee and muffin provided.
